DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 12-14,15,17,19-22,24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 12-14,15,17,19,21-22,24: The invention as claimed does not pertain to a tangible product as the recitation of the method denotes. For such claims to be statutory they must be embodied within a tangible computer medium such as hard drives or some other computer hardware form.

Claim 20 recites a system for disseminating links metrics. Since the recited system is not limited to hardware or a combination of hardware and software, instead being sufficiently broad as to encompass software alone. As such, the claimed system must include hardware. Absent recitation of such hardware as part of the claimed system, it is considered non-statutory. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 18 is allowed.
